

Lori Klein

As an Intimacy Coordinator with extensive experience as a Studio Teacher, I create a safe and supportive environment for actors during intimate scenes in film and television. I excel in collaboration, working closely with directors, producers, and various departments to establish clear guidelines and choreography that respect boundaries while achieving the desired emotional impact. My commitment to consent and open dialogue ensures that all parties feel comfortable and informed, fostering a positive and empowering atmosphere on set. With a passion for enhancing creativity and safety, I strive to make every project a respectful and memorable experience for everyone involved.
