

Bonnie J. Pritcher

204 E 64th Street Savannah, GA 31405
(912)631-2495 bonbon0911@gmail.com

Objective

Obtain the position of seamstress and/or trainer/tutor

Work Experience

Effingham County Board of Education (August 2006 – May 2021)

Effingham County High School Family and Consumer Sciences educator

- Plan and execute Georgia Performance Standard aligned lesson plans
- Guide students in observation and laboratory experience with PreK students
- Manage high school students in planning and implementation of lessons with PreK students
- Coordinate student interns to assist in area elementary and middle school classrooms
- Facilitated the obtaining of Georgia Early Childhood Education Foundation Industry Certification for Effingham County High School's Early Childhood Education program; earning state funds for the program and state and local recognition
- Complete, update, and submit Industry Certification Annual Review to document changes to the Early Childhood Education program
- Prepare agenda and minutes for Effingham County Family and Consumer Sciences Advisory committee
- Advise content related student organization; plan meetings, establish agenda, schedule fundraisers, and conduct meetings with student officers
- Oversee student organization financial account— deposits, purchases, receipts
- Facilitate student members in preparation for competitions at local, state, and national level; serve as judge for student competitions at region and state levels
- Planned and directed Girls' Night for several hundred high school girls; contacted community members and business owners to encourage participation in Girls' Night
- Plan weekly events with food preparation for up to 130 students and coaches
- Organize student volunteers to plan, prepare, and serve for a variety of in-house events, serving hundreds, including FFA (Future Farmers of America) and football banquets
- Organize student volunteers to plan, prepare, and serve at community events including Marlow Elementary School's Swamp People spring festival, and annually for the Effingham County Young Farmer banquet and the Lowcountry Down Syndrome Society Buddy Walk
- Maintain affiliation in various professional organizations and attend annual meetings and conferences

Calvary Day School (February 2001 – May 2006)

Middle School Mathematics and Science educator

- Plan and execute mathematics and science lesson plans
- Supervise field trips
- Assist in planning and oversight of Homecoming, Prom, and additional activities

Westside Rental, Inc.—In Any Event (April 2000 – February 2001)

Event Planner

- Assist clients in selection of equipment tailored to personal needs and desires
- Coordinate rental, delivery, and pickup of event and wedding equipment and supplies
- Select and order new equipment adding to line of available products

Education

Educational Specialist in Curriculum and Instruction—Lincoln Memorial University, 2012

Master of Science in Middle Grades—Armstrong Atlantic State University, 2008

Bachelor of Science in Home Economics Education—Georgia Southern College, 1982